THIS WEEK

Memorial Service

At the church the children talked about their memories of Mr Mendum and showed pictures they had drawn of him and the things he liked. They also joined in with a whole school song and sang beautifully. They were very respectful during the service.

Red Nose Day

The children all looked great in their red clothes today to celebrate Red Nose Day. They enjoyed designing their own red noses, playing games such as bowling for noses, nose goals, pick your nose and a nose and spoon race. The children also had visitor from the house captains to engage in more fun Red Nose Day activities.
